The University of Montana women's volleyball team ended its season last weekend with a 5th place finish at the Northwest Tournament in Pullman. The ten-team tourney was held on the campus of Washington State University.

Montana, in finishing 3rd in its 5-team bracket Friday, beat Eastern Oregon College and Washington State. The University of Oregon and the University of Washington handed Montana match defeats.

Saturday, UM defeated Western Washington State College, the 4th place team of the other bracket. Montana then captured 5th place in the overall standings with a 14-16, 15-7, 15-4 triumph over Eastern Washington State College.

The fifth place finish spoiled UM's hopes of a trip to the National volleyball finals. Montana needed either a first or second place finish to reach the finals.

UM concluded the season with a 27-9-4 record.
